SEE SAN FRANCISCO . . . its hills and curvy streets provide a charm and flavor that is likened to many cities of the Old World. Reduced to cinder several times since she was born, she gallantly fought back each time to rise and become a greater city than before. Art Museums, Opera and Ballet Companies lend a cultural atmosphere that is difficult to match. There are 3,500 restaurants throughout the city and many of them will take a back seat to no other. It is repeatedly stated that there are more elements of sheer beauty to be seen without cost than in any other American city.

If you are just visiting, park your car and tour the easy, comfortable and convenient way. Let the Municipal Railway act as your chauffeur. This historic city is served adequately by a transportation system designed to accommodate residents and tourists alike. Buses, streetcars and cable cars will take you to almost every tourist attraction in San Francisco.
